will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Market House of Alexandria city, a part of the real extate of which the late Philip Otterback died seized, consisting of 1st. The TEACT OF LAND called "OPOSSUM NOSE," containing 1,034 acres, more or less, lying in Prince William county, and fronting about one mile and a half on the Potomac river and one mile on Quantico creek. Some 400 acres of this tract is cleared and in cultivation, and on that portion is a GOOD DWELLING HOUSE and all the necessary extra didings. The residue is well timbered, there being a great quantity of hard and pine wood. The soil is excellent and easily improved.

24. The TEACT OF LAND called "HIGH POINT," containing 1,700 acres, more or less, lying in Fairfax country, fronting over a mile on the Potomac and a considerable distance on Occoquan bay. About 1,600 acres of this tract is fine up-land, and all of it, except 300 or 400 acres, is in very heavy timber, both pine and hard wood. In this section of the State there is not a better timber tract or one more conveniently placed for shipping to good markets ties, lumber and cord wood. The clearing is in cultivation and has a large and comfortable DWELLING HOUSE and sub-tantial outbuildings. The "HIGH POINT" SHAD and HERRING FISHING SHORE is one of the oldest, best known and most profitable on the river.

of the oldest, best known and moss promised the river.

Eliz & No. Car E. R., now building into the rich ores of Doe Mountain and Boane's Creek in Jchnson County, Tenn.

Bristol is not a "Paper" city; it has a population of about 12,000, live, energetic people, is rapidly growing and is destined to be one of the largest manufacturing cities of the South. It less within 3 hours of inexhaustable coking and domestic coals, the richest iron ore in the U. S., and immense bedies of Virgin timber, all of which reach Bristol via the S. A. & O. and Elizabethon roads. Its advantages of transportation and nearness to markets, its clevation, (nearly 1700 ft.) doightful climate, and its SOLID BASIS IN MINEKAL WEALTH and timber, present inducements for investments, rarely met with. During the past year, over $1,000,000 have been invested.

The Bristol Iron & Steel Co., (owned by Pennsylvania iron men) has commenced the construction, on the Company's lands, of the largest furnace plant in the south.

CORPORATION NOTICES. NOTICE TO CITY TAX-PAYERS. All persons who have not paid their city taxes for 1889 are notified that they will be called upon to make payment. The time in which to collect the bills now on hand and make a settlement with the city is short. It is hoped those who have not settled will be prepared to do so when called upon, as further indulgence cannot be granted.

Having finished making the assessment for the city for the year 1890, all property-owners wishing to examine the same will call between the hours of two and six o'clock.
